This is a great introductory communications course. I always felt challenged, but never to the point of overwhelmed. Everything we did in and outside of class had a purpose and helped me learn. A lot of information packed into one class, but the teacher was very informative and really helped to explain the content with great examples! I really enjoyed the class. Professor Lohiser is an amazing teacher, My only complaint is with the tests, we go through such a large amount of material so quickly and than we don't have a study guide. She is a wonderful professor who engages well with students I very much enjoyed this class. The professor is great!!! This course is highly informative and enjoyable. Professor Lohiser was a very enjoyable professor. She was engaging and made you want to be in class everyday The course was excellent at giving a broad introduction to various means of communication, that was thought provoking and engaging with students. The course was taught very well by Professor Lohiser who was clear in her lessons and explanations, which kept students focused on learning the material while at the lectures. I thoroughly enjoyed taking Professor Lohiser's class, it was my favorite class of the semester!

I really enjoyed how Amanda tied in tv shows, movies, bands, and other relevant topics because I think it helped me understand the material better. I also really enjoyed the faint music in the background. It helped me stay focused in class and made for a better atmosphere. Talks too much about personal life. Great course would recommend to friends to take. I think there is too much information to remember on each test for a 101 class. Review sheets for each test would be helpful. The course challenged me to break out of my writing habits from high school, and because of that I have progressed in my writing skills immensely. can't wait to work with Amanda again in the future This course really connected a lot of things I have learned in other classes throughout the past 3 years. Professor made subject really come to life, which always helps me learn and retain the information.
